

A Quick Reference Guide for Connecting Catchment and Eco Groups with Wairarapa Schools

Do you want to involve tamariki in the projects happening in your catchment?

Learning in the environment
Learning about the environment
Taking action for the environment.

Opportunities

- Stream health testing
- Investigating life in streams
- Conducting bird and insect surveys
- Choosing the right plants for different purposes
- Telling stories and history
- Sharing local pūrākau
- Sharing your projects whys and aspirations
- Using technology to track, map, measure
- Using natural resources for solutions
- Planting and plant maintenance
- Tracking and trapping pests

Enviroschools

- Stream Health Assessment Kits
- Noticing Nature Kits
- Tracking and Trapping workshops

Contact gill.stewart@gw.govt.nz

Mountains to Sea Wellington

- Catchment community group support
- Freshwater education

Contact rachel.griffiths@mtsw.org.nz or kara.kenny@mtsw.org.nz

Ruamāhanga Restoration Trust

- Environmental restoration projects
- Supply of native trees
- School transport

Contact karin.rrtrust@gmail.com

Access more information through the Catchment Communities Working with Schools padlet to find more useful links and work happening in the area.

Contact the Enviroschools Community Facilitator gill.stewart@gw.govt.nz if you would like support developing a long-term relationship with a school.

Wairarapa
Catchment
Collective